

Review

Crowley's Courtyard Restaurant Offers Variety, Reasonable Prices

by Carolyn Brakebill

Crowley's Courtyard Restaurant is located at Old Raleigh Village Shoppes on Edwards Mill Road. There is seldom more than a fifteen-minute wait for seating. The checkered tablecloths of both red and white and black and white give the dining room a casual atmosphere. The soft candlelight on each table or booth adds a touch of intimacy and elegance to the room. The acoustics in the area are very good. There are no intruding conversations from other tables. Even through there is a bar with live entertainment on weekends, excessive noise is not a problem.

The menu consists of soups, salads, appetizers, seafood dishes, steaks, specialties, sandwiches, and dessert selections. The specialty menu includes pasta, chicken, lasagna and ribs. The "Not So Cajun" dishes are my favorite, and I would recommend these to anyone with a taste for a little spice. These dishes are cajun-seasoned shrimp and cajun-seasoned strips of chicken. Each is served over your choice of rice, fettuccine, or angel hair pasta with a cajun cream sauce. There is also a delicious combination dish of shrimp, scallops, broccoli, carrots, and fettuccine tossed in a cajun alfredo sauce.

The prices are moderate. The range for entrees is $7.95 to $14.95. Other choices are even less expensive. In addition, Crowley's offers a frequent dinner card to each diner. Presenting this card to the wait person while dining entitles the diner to the following discounts:

Sunday $2.00 off price of any steak (except sirloin).

Monday Buy one entree, get a second of equal or less value for half price.

Tuesday Free kid's meal with purchase of an entree.

Wednesday Free dessert with purchase of an entree.

Thursday Buy one appetizer and get a second of equal or less value for half price.

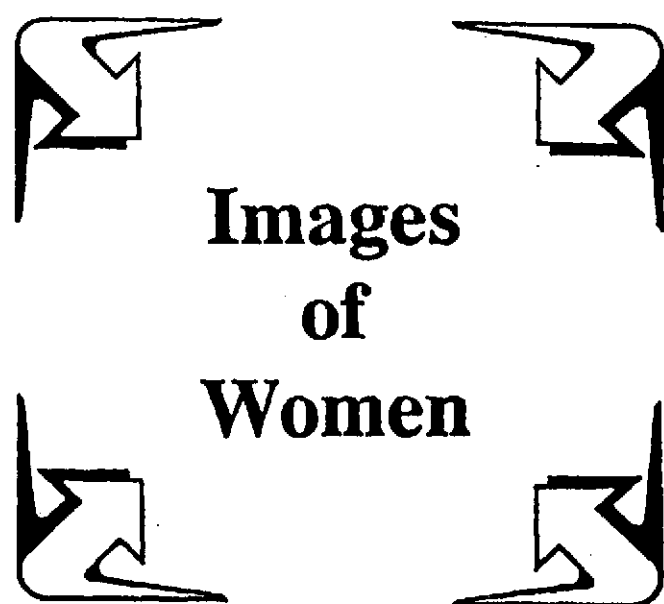

Having eaten at this restaurant many times and always having received prompt and courteous service, I highly recommend it for lunch or dinner.

Club Notes

WINGS - our March general meeting will be held in room 214 Harris on Monday, March 16, at 10 a.m. Dr. Ellen Ironside, Dean of Continuing Education, will be our speaker. Her topic will be adult education. Dr. Ironside will be retiring at the end of this semester, so we encourage you to attend and take advantage of this opportunity to hear her speak. Elections for next year's officers will also be held at this time. We'll have plenty of free food.

Granddaughter's Club - On Feb. 14, the Granddaughter's club paid special tribute to all the faculty and staff that graduated from Meredith. Each granddaughter picked several faculty and staff and delivered a special Valentine's Day gift to them. Everyone was very grateful for the thoughtfulness of the granddaughters, especially Dru Hinsley who wanted to express her thanks to all the granddaughters. We understand that Dru will soon be a Grandmother herself soon. Congratulations!

The Granddaughter's Club went out to dinner at the Side Street Cafe on Feb. 17. An enjoyable time was had by all, and a surprise dessert was served by Jodi Mitchiner, Vice-President of the Granddaughter's Club. Thanks, Jodi!

Women's Film Series

March 17

Shirley Valentine

The story of a middle-aged housewife who feels that life has passed her by until she goes on holiday without her husband and rediscovers her zest for life and love--and herself. Joyner #103.

Deborah Tippett

Assistant Professor of Home Economics

March 24

The Long Walk Home

Two women--one black and one white--put their lives in danger for civil rights in 1950's Alabama and discover a common ground in a difficult world. Joyner #103.

Sarah English

Associate Professor of English

March 31

Thelma and Louise

A road film and journey of discovery filled with friendship, character, and truth combine the best of the great "buddy" adventures with the social consciousness of the changing roles of women. Cate Center Auditorium.

Blu Greenberg

Instructor of Art

Classes will be held on Tuesdays, 5:30-8:00 p.m.

IMAGES OF WOMEN is sponsored by the Division for Student Development, Meredith College. For more information, contact:

Gordon Folger
Office of Career Services
2nd Floor, Cate Center
829-8341