

Foreign language follies prove fun, fantastic

by Sonali Kolhatkar

Meredith's annual "Foreign Language Follies" was a hit. The over-capacity crowd at Carswell Auditorium cheered for each skit that was performed. Meredith students performed a multitude of different skits, ranging from an aria to a Spanish rendition of "I'm too Sexy". Students were entertained with Spanish monologues, songs, commercials, and dances.

The French students also entertained the audience with a French cafe scene, songs, and the infamous "Can Can," which was performed expertly.

The Italian students dazzled the audience with a beautifully sung aria and an Italian song-scene.

The German students brought back childhood memories in the reenactment of Grimm's Fairy Tales.

The Latin students also brought back childhood memories with their rendition of "Winnie il Pu" and also a dramatic poetry reading.

And last, but not least, Meredith students had a special treat. Dr. Burgunde Winz and Dr. Susan Gilbert recited four ancient Chinese poems. They have been studying the language for their upcoming visit to China.

At the end of the follies, each foreign language department was awarded a cake. Those who won their cakes and got to eat them, too, were the German reenactment of Grimm's tales, the Latin play, "Winnie il Pu", the Spanish song: "I'm too Sexy," Michelle Fortner's Italian aria, and the French students' "Can Can."
