

Seniors give their last will and testaments working in the Chemistry department. Thanks for being such great friends. I love you all.

I, Sherrie Hair, being of sound mind and body, do bequeath Wanda A. the best of luck for a great Senior year. I leave Anna and Rhonda the great fun and traditions of your upcoming years. To Meredith College, I leave you all of your obnoxious noises, ridiculous hall meetings and fond memories.

I, Ann Hiott, do bequeath to Angela a boyfriend with hair, to Camille I leave my favorite things envelope, to Christa I leave my birthday sundae spoons, to Crystal I leave my cassette case, to Jennifer I leave my Daytimer, to Karen I leave my "No Business-now-computer disk" to Dr. Madalyn I leave total control- sike, and to Meredith and friends I leave many thanks.

I, Kelley Holton, do bequeath some of the most fondest and best memories of my life here at Meredith to Kimberly Pollock in hopes that she will love and cherish her time here as much as I did.

I, Kathryn Horne, do bequeath all of the laughter and happiness that I have found here at Meredith to all of my friends at Meredith. To my roommate, Corn, I leave a new box of Colorifics, all the M&M's in the world, and my phone number in case she ever needs me. We, Kit and Corn, leave our special peanuts to Marlee Wilson because we know she will take care of them.

I, Abbey Howell, do bequeath to my lil sis Wendy a whisper 2000 so you can understand me at breakfast and a place to watch Knots anytime. To my lil sis Mandy a corkscrew for Cornhuskin and a bottle of Sutters Home since you are a little person and to my lil sis Leslie a safe ride home and the ability to keep living with Mandy- since she's taking Cyndie's job this will take talent.

I, Jennifer Howell, do bequeath to Elizabeth Key an unlimited supply of boxes to complete your files. To the "Tarboro Girls" I leave all the fun you can have here that you won't find at home. To Grey Carstarphen and Nancy Bradley I leave the hopes for great lil sis's like you have been to me.

And finally to Denise Bare, LaJean Mangum, and Virginia Clark Weigand I leave to each of you, as we part, all the great memories that we share and the love that has given me a new family here at Meredith. I also leave to you a promise that we each keep in touch as we find jobs, get married, move from place to place, have children, and just plain grow old. You have made my years here at Meredith as wonderful as could be. Thank you, I love you!

I, Martha Inscore, do bequeath to Kimberly Murray a piece of "ham", a Maxima, a rap music debut, and plenty of ice cold beers. Jennifer Smith a ride on the MARTA in HOTLANTA, Jill Beeson another fall in the middle of the street (New Year's Eve), Missy Plotts an ID that works, and the sound of a pig- early in the morning. My lil sis, Julie Ann Burnette, another lawn party, a great and safe time in France and the best of luck in everything.

I, Ellynn Kellam, do bequeath to Jill Beeson the cover of Sports Illustrated and a 2:00 am breakfast buffet. To Penny Kaiser I leave the single to Vouge and the electric slide in CATS Longe. To Jody McCan I leave a pack of Marlboro Lights from century 21 Boulevard. To Allison Spearman I leave a great senior year, an earlier birthday and someone to visit in Charlotte-I'll miss ya! To Kimberly Murray I leave a later aerobics class. And to the underclassmen I say enjoy your college years because they're gone before you know it.

I, Kristen Lanier, do bequeath to Julia Hicks the thought "Don't worry- It's only two more years. To Melanie Cannon a ride home, to Kim Colston a messenger/parcel service from Greenville to Raleigh. Good luck.

I, Rue S. Lee, being of VERY sound mind, do bequeath my African-American presence to Meredith College, my strength and tolerance (what little I have left) to the present and future African-American students of Meredith College, my hopes that Meredith will enter the 21st century and change her attitude about the role of African-Americans on this campus:

I, Dana Leggette, being of sound mind and body, do bequeath to Elaine Leggette a lot of patience to make it through her Senior year. To Lisa Fogel I leave the ability to study without getting stressed out and all the best in medical school.

I, Cheri Lenoard, do bequeath all my quick fix chicken cookbooks to Thad and the rest of the ARA staff. I leave my wardrobe to Courtney Creswell, Michelle May, and Lynn Davidson since I never could get it back anyway. I also leave my unique party finding abilities to Genny with a G and her roommate Allison. Also I leave it to the underclassmen to find a way to convince people they need a ticket to ride the Cornhuskin bus.

I, Jewell LaJean Mangum, do bequeath to B.A. Eagles my old "Courier Times" newspapers, this way she will have something to read in class. To Stephanie Hubbard my notes and grades in Child Development classes, may they do you some good, and finally to Dana Roberson, my lil sis, I leave all of my good times and great memories here at Meredith, I'll miss ya'll.

I, Pamela McBrayer, do bequeath the following possessions and memories. To Karen, stories, shopping at the Gap, earrings, errands, notecards, spades, and many great times, thanks for being a great friend. Good luck next year. Camille- Copa Cabana and Abracadabra, "can I drive your car?", laughing and the remember game. Dadee- projects, old tests, heat pump, "let's go shopping instead, Jay", chocolate chips, and orange. MEA ers- good luck next year- I'll miss you.

I, Missy McDowell, being of sound mind and body, do bequeath to my lil sis, Alicia Morris, my pool playing expertise and the ability to use it to her advantage. I also leave her all my good times at Sigma Nu and many more to come. Best of luck in the future.

I, Holley Milam, do bequeath to Martha Inscore a patch of 4-leaf clovers. I leave Laine Zell a repair kit for "Gooch" so that he may live as long as she does. I leave Kim Audette a lifetime supply of OREO'S! To the Meredith Late Night Security Guards I leave a lifetime supply of Krispy Creme doughnuts for them to hand out to all students coming in with the "munchies". To Liz Stilwell- A NEW IMPALA!!

I, Melanie Overby, do bequeath to all my Little Sis's (Caroline Ballard, Kris Spence, Jodi Tally & Janine Russel) enthusiam and encouragement for the next two years. I also leave to some poor naive soul my highly esteemed position in the Psychology Department.

I, Kelly Parker, do bequeath the Meredith Herald to my wonderfully devoted staff (or anyone else who wants it) good luck next year. To Gilda Boyd I leave lots of Gumby's pizza and aspirin. To Julie Smith I leave 500 exposures of film and a year full of smiles. To Amity Brown I leave one big glue stick and Mr. Zucker. To Trista Schagat and Amy Hogan I leave a big hug. I'll miss you!

I, Kitty Pate, do bequeath to Ashley Blanton a whistle and a wide-load truck. To Stephanie and Dana Roberson- I wish you good luck next year- you'll do a great job!!

I, Elizabeth Pauline Ray, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeth to the girls of 2nd Poteat, I leave the best senior year anyone could ever wish for — filled with fun, friends and most of all — CUTE BOYS! To Anna, I leave Monday night dinners and the thought that we will never have to do a senior thesis again. To Kate, I leave more than words can express — I leave the extra gas money saved by not having to ride by you-know-who's houses,