

Question of the Week

How do you feel about censorship?

Emily Robinette
Sophomore

"I guess it can be good, but I had read a good amount of the books on the list in the cafeteria and they broadened my horizons."

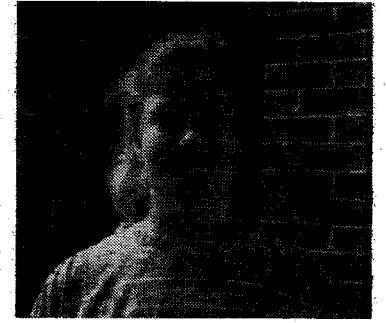

Alicia Morris
Senior

"It depends on the situation and the degree of appropriateness."

Kristen Mundy
Senior

"I guess above all it's most important to uphold the Constitution. Where I feel a lot of tension is in the classroom. As a teacher I know that some of the things I teach will be challenged. I will have to make people understand why it's important to teach controversial literature."

Kate (Bug) Outten
Freshman

"I feel that censorship is necessary in some extremes but not to the point that it's ridiculous."

Olivia Rogers
Freshman

"As far as music is concerned, I think people have a right to produce the records. I feel there should be a label that says warning because everyone has a right to listen to what they want."

Shannon Baynor
Junior

"I think censorship is good for some books, but not so good or bad for others."
