cooperation; Dr. Swab showed them what the ecosystem provided for the soup; and Dr. Weir found recipes from the Victorian and Romantic eras.

The funniest contribution was the addition of Dr. Parker into the soup illustrating the need for everyone to have education.

Just as their dinner needed a mix of ingredients from each of them, the faculty performers proved contributions from each department are necessary to make a well-rounded students.

of your Handbook for specific information). When you do exit, please check the door behind you to make sure it locked in order to ensure the safety of the other residents in your building. If you exit after campus closing hours (M-TH 1:00 a.m., F-S 2:00 a.m.) we ask that you call Security not to inconvenience you, but to let security know you are leaving the residence hall so they can be alert for any problems you might have. Your CAMCARD will allow you to enter any residence hall on campus. After closing hours students are expected to be in their residence halls, returning to campus, or off-campus. Students may not sit or wander about campus.

I hope this helps to clear up your understanding of the new policies on campus. I also hope you realize that we as a Residence Hall Board are trying merely to ensure safety and comfort among all our residents. If you do have any questions, comments or suggestions please feel free to see me (Nickie Bounds, RHB Chair, ext. 7833) or Paula O'Briant (Associate Director of Residence Life and Housing, ext. 8633).

Thank you,

ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN PUBLISHERS/NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGE STORES

The National Library of Poetry has announced that $12,000 in prizes will be awarded this year to over 250 poets in the North American Open Poetry Contest.

The deadline for the contest is September 30, 1994. The contest is open to everyone and entry is FREE.

Any poet, whether previously published or not, can be a winner. Every poem entered also has a chance to be published in a deluxe, hardbound anthology. To enter, send ONE original poem, any subject and any style, to:

The National Library of Poetry, 11419 Cronridge Dr., P.O. Box 704-1981, Owings Mills, MD 21117.

The poem should be no more than 20 lines, and the poet's name and address should appear on the top of the page. Entries must be postmarked by September 30, 1994.

A new contest opens October 1, 1994.
