

partment, faculty marshal, holds the Meredith College Mace at the beginning of the ceremony.

We were quite surprised to find that we could not recognize one security agent for the Governor among the crowd. (They usually stick out!)

photos by
Jetson

Dr. Cochran of the religion department showed his true colors as he marched into the auditorium in his academic regalia.

our Meredith Pride!