

Question of the Week:

How would you feel if a male tried to enter Meredith like Shannon Faulkner entered the Citadel?

Perri Sutton

senior

"If Shannon Faulkner had entered the Citadel to be a true cadet and not just to prove a point, I wouldn't have a problem with her."

Kelly Jones

freshman

"It is a different situation because the Citadel is public and Meredith is private."

Holly Lambeth

junior

"I am opposed to it because it would break the tradition of Meredith College. It would not be the same with men here."

Kim Heisser

freshman

"I don't like it because I like the tradition of an all female school."

Torri Bowman

senior

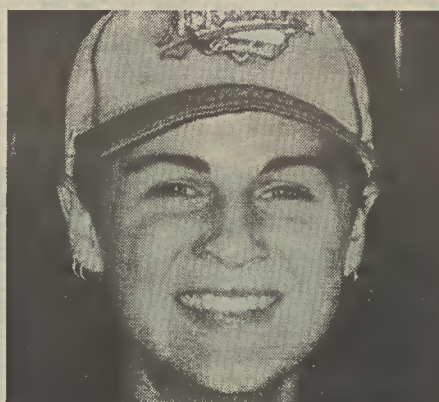

"I am against it because I think it is a tradition and it is O.K. that there are schools that only males and females can attend."

Angela Stanley

freshman

"I would not like it because Meredith is an all girls school and if males entered, it would be coed."

Joanna Grubbs

senior

"I would not want them to live on campus."
