Volleyball team works hard

By Beth Morris

After playing two games, the Meredith volleyball team stands 1-1, losing their first game on Sept. 11 to NC Wesleyan and defeating Methodist College on Sept. 14.

Dr. Marie Chamblee, the team's coach, said that her team played well against NC Wesleyan but they got too far behind to regain the lead. Chamblee commented on the team's first victory saying, the players "showed team effort" as they "came in more prepared and are starting to work together better."

Captains Tara Poe, a junior from Durham, and Cathy Garrett, a senior from Fayetteville, had outstanding performances in the NC Wesleyan game, according to Chamblee.

The team has opened up their 1995 fall season with much enthusiasm, leaving Chamblee with a "bright outlook." Chamblee says that this year's team is "outstanding" and "potentially one of the best hitting groups ever."

Come out and support the team! Their next home game is Monday, Sept. 25 and once again the "angels" will challenge Methodist College. Game time is 7pm at Weatherspoon gym.

Soccer and tennis teams know the winning score

by Deanna Griffin

The fall tennis and soccer seasons are well underway. The Meredith tennis team, coached by Melinda Campbell, has a 4-1 record, which includes the exciting win over big rival Methodist College this past Thursday.

They are making a strong showing, especially for such a young team. There are no seniors on the team and only one junior in the top six. The current number one, freshman Ann Mebane, and the team captains, sophomores Dorothy Livesay and Sarah Huffman, are playing extremely well. The real test will be the Rolex Tournament, which is coming up on Sept. 29.

Coach Campbell says she is pleased with the team's mature thinking and hopes to earn a high ranking at the Rolex.

The Meredith soccer team is also playing well. They are currently 2-3 after a busy weekend at Sweet Briar College. Coach Jose Cornejo says that they are "creating a lot of chances, just not capitalizing on them." He is happy with the way everyone is making a solid contribution on the field. Some of the stronger players are Jamie Stafford, Kelly Pergerson, Sara Takata, Scottie Eustis, and Jessica Brooks. The team is looking forward to the remainder of the season. The first home game is against Belmont-Abbey on Sept. 27.
