

Fall sports at Meredith

By Allison Carter

Volleyball

Meredith hosted the Women's College Volleyball Invitational tournament this past weekend October 20-21 in Weatherspoon Gymnasium. Meredith played against Salem College and won three games on Friday. The team then played Mary Baldwin the same day and won two out of three games, followed by a win of three games against Agnus Scott.

The Angels advanced to the semi-finals on Saturday where they successfully triumphed over Hollins College to advance to the final round held late Saturday afternoon.

Meredith played Randolph Macon in the finals where Randolph Macon came out on top. The Angels became the runners up of the entire tournament.

The team had a home game on Tuesday October 24, and will play in a tournament hosted by Salem College in Winston-Salem October 27-28.

"I was surprised to see how well we could play together as a team. If we do well on our fundamentals we should come out on top at Salem," said Meredith Pittman, freshman.

Soccer

The soccer team played St. Mary's at home in a 4-1 win on October 10. The team won against Hollins in another home game on Thursday, Oct. 12.

The Angels lost to Randolph Macon at home 5-1 last Saturday. They played at St. Mary's where they won 3-0 on Monday.

So far in the season the team has won nine games, lost five and tied one. The next game will be at home against Greensboro College on Wednesday, October 25th at 4:00 p.m.

"I think the team is having a great season. We got off to a rocky start, but we have been strong ever since. It takes a new team a while to get to know one another, and I think we have accomplished that task," said Sara Dixon.

Tennis

The tennis team just completed their fall season in a game against Sweetbriar where Meredith won 8 to 1 this past Saturday. Meredith won 8 to 1 against Averett, as well on Wednesday, October 18.

In a tournament at Mary Baldwin the Angels had several team members to come out on top. Freshman Ann Mebane won singles, while Mebane and captain Dorothy Livesay won doubles. Both Holly Tharpe and Brooke Ramos won consolation matches.

"We ended on a really strong note. We all had a great time and have become a close nit team. We can now look forward to the spring season," said Livesay.

Members of the Meredith volleyball team warm up during practice.
