USA Today is looking for 60 full-time students to be named to its All-USA Academic team. Students will be featured in a two-page color insert in the newspaper, and the top 20 will receive cash prizes as well. The deadline for nominations is Nov. 17. Nominations are to come from faculty members. They are looking for students who excel not only in scholarship but in leadership roles on and off campus. Students will be judged on an outstanding original academic or intellectual product. Students need recommendations from the nominating professor. Nomination forms and a contact number is located in the Honors office.

The National Conference on Undergraduate Research (NCUR) is promoting undergraduate research, scholarship and creative activity by sponsoring an undergraduate research conference on April 18-20 in Asheville NC. The deadlines for abstracts is Dec. 10, 1995. Open for students in a wide variety of disciplines.

ATTENTION MEREDITH STUDENTS!

Looking to earn some extra money during the Spring Semester? The office of Alumnae Relations has just the job for you. 15 students are needed to work on the Alumnae Phonathon for donations to the College's Annual Fund. You will be working in the Alumnae House two nights per week (Tuesdays and Wednesdays) from February 6 through April 24. (Spring Break week off) This is a great opportunity to earn some extra money and gain some valuable experience in telemarketing and fund raising. Stop by the Alumnae House today to fill out an application. For more information call Mary Kate Keith at ext. 8391.
