Poet's Corner

By Kimberly Starbuck

I sit sit sit
and wonder—
wonder why—

Within the realms
of my human mind
I wonder.

With all the certainties to relish in my life I want
none of them.

I want the ever
changing wind—
I want each cell of my being to
dissolve into the gust of the wind
to form and reform—

I am in love
with the shadows
of floating trees
I want to be their dance...

I want to be absorbed
into the rain cloud
and watch my soul
fall back
to my mother—

Every drop being
brother, sister, father, mother, son, and daughter to my soul.

I wonder

I wonder about
the unity of it...

The Herald is starting a poet's corner featuring student's works, we welcome any submissions.
