NOTICE
The Counseling Center is promoting responsible drinking and alcohol awareness this week before spring break. In this mission, the Counseling Center is distributing red ribbons and putting up alcohol awareness information on a public bulletin board in Cate Center. Unfortunately the posters they purchased for this program were taken. The Counseling Center believes it was a mistake and that the individual or individuals who took the posters didn't realize they were Counseling Center property. The Counseling Center requests that whoever took the posters please return them. Information for ordering more posters is available through the Counseling Center should anyone wish to purchase their own posters.
