Mathematics competition winners announced

Vivian Kraines

Department of Mathematics and Computer Sciences

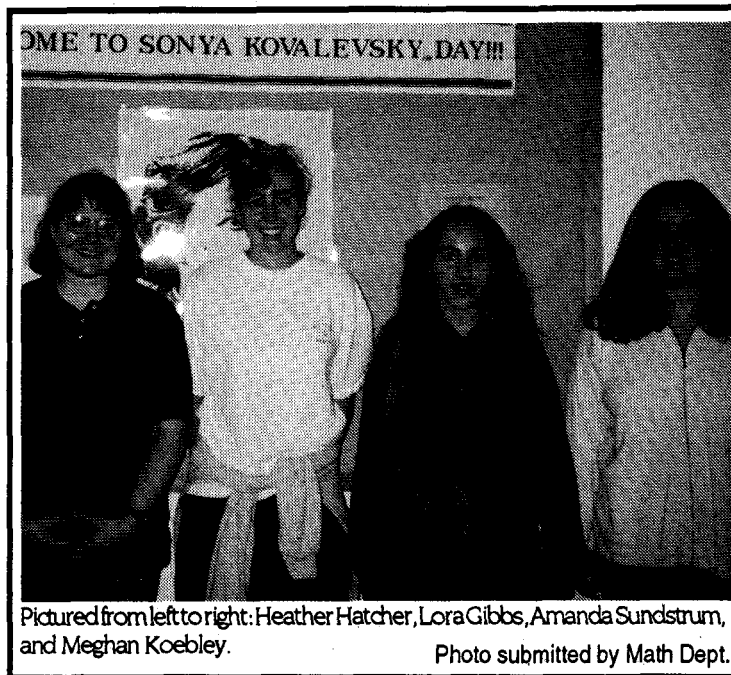

Dr. Virginia Knight presented awards to the winners of the Freshman-Sophomore Mathematics Competition at the Canaday Mathematics & Computer Science Club meeting Wednesday, March 5. Lora Gibbs, Heather Hatcher and Meghan Koebley tied for first place.

Lora is a freshman honor student and plans to major in mathematics. After graduating from Meredith, she plans to pursue an engineering degree. Heather is a sophomore honor student and Teaching Fellow. She is double-majoring in mathematics and chemistry and plans to teach in a secondary school. Megan is a sophomore pursuing a BS in computer science and a BA in mathematics. She was the second place winner last year.

In addition to the scholarship awards, Amanda Sundstrum received a Book award for Honorable Mention. Amanda is a freshman who plans to major in the mathematical sciences.

First given in 1982, the Freshman-Sophomore Mathematics Contest provides students with the opportunity to try their problem solving skills outside the confines of a particular course. Through the contest, the department of mathematics and computer science is pleased to recognize the academic interest and achievement of freshmen and sophomore math students. The department looks forward to sponsoring the contest next year.

Meredith Dance Theatre in Concert

Alyson Colwell-Waber

Meredith Dance Director

Two of the Triangle's hottest modern dance choreographers will have their latest choreographic works performed by the Meredith Dance Theatre April 3, 4, and 5 at 8 pm in Jones Auditorium.

David Beadle, a relative newcomer to the North Carolina dance scene and to Meredith College's faculty, will premiere Indra's Web, a quartet set to the music of Claude Debussy. Using a unique and unusual movement vocabulary developed in collaboration with the dancers, this piece moves through many strong and fluid forms - revealing a subtle and sensitive universe where each individual action ripples through the whole.

Longtime Chapel Hill resident and former Pilobolus dancer Jack Arnold has been a visiting guest artist with the Meredith dance program this semester. Arnold has created a quizzical, comical, tongue-in-cheek look at life in a single-sex, church-affiliated institution of higher learning. Hail Marys features six women in plaid field hockey kilts and a music collage which includes Franz Schubert's Gloria, My Baby Just Cares for Me performed by Nina Simone, and Leontyne Price singing Ave Maria.

Also on the program is the delightful We Left Our Fabulous Plaid Suits At Home, choreographed by acclaimed dancer Amy Chavasse; Alyson Colwell-Waber's lyrical ensemble work Weaving The Cloth; and the sculptural and evocative duet The Harding, created by MDT performers Kendra Edge and Allison Waddell.

Tickets ($6 General Admission; $4 Students and Seniors) may be purchased at the door or reserved in advance by calling 829-2840.
