MFA raises money for Interact

The Meredith Fashion Association (MFA) had its first spaghetti dinner in February. During that dinner, money was raised to be given to Interact's Battered Women's Shelter. Over $340 was collected from the dinner with approximately $200 given to the Shelter.

Two representatives from the shelter were guests at the March meeting of MFA to receive the gift. The rest of the money will be used for activities within the organization. MFA would like to say thank you to everyone who came to support them with their fundraiser.

MFA also recently elected their 1999-2000 officers who will be initiated on Apr. 22 at 4:30 p.m. in 112 Hunter. All current officers, officers-elect and members are encouraged to attend. Congratulations to the following new officers: Meredith Jackson, president; Katherine McCullough, vice president; Heather Stephenson, Secretary; Claire Gray, treasurer; Amy Nisbet, publicity; Michelle Drake, historian.

SGA sponsors afternoon faculty/staff challenge

Last Wednesday, Apr. 7, the SGA sponsored a Faculty/Staff Spring Challenge. About 15 students and approximately six faculty came to play games and have fun at 5 p.m. in the courtyard.

Barbara True-Weber, politics professor; Carol Hazard, geography professor; Ann Gleason, director of academic advising; Chrissie Bumgardner, director of first-year experience; LeeAnna Keith, history professor and Carolyn Happer, history professor, were among the faculty in attendance.

The participants held a relay and played games that involved hula hoops and whipped cream. They also listened to music. Shannon MacFarlane, SGA president, helped to organize the event.

Jennifer Ricks, SGA president-elect, said, "It was a lot of fun to get together and relieve stress." She commented on seeing a different side of professors than students see in class. However, she was slightly disappointed in the turnout. Noting that some faculty had a function in the library, she said, "It was a little disappointing not to see as many faculty and students, but those there had a great time."
