Campus Briefs

Alumnae to hold meeting today

PRESS RELEASE
Office of Alumnae Affairs

The Meredith College Alumnae Association is meeting today in the Alumnae House at noon. Virginia Parker, association president, will be leading the discussion. All Wake County alumnae were invited to attend. The group will be discussing the issue of admitting men into the graduate program here at Meredith.

Faculty reports committee progress

PRESS RELEASE
SACS Committee

The Meredith College faculty held a campus-wide faculty meeting Friday afternoon in Kresge Auditorium. Individual committees gave reports of their current projects. The SACS committee briefed the faculty on their research up to this point with a final report being available during the summer. The committee announced that SACS visit would be in mid-October after fall break.

Alumnae Weekend is coming soon

PRESS RELEASE
Office of Alumnae Affairs

Alumnae Weekend is approaching as graduation nears. The annual event will be held May 14-16 on campus. There will be a memorial service for Carolyn Grubbs, alumna and professor of history, Friday, May 14 at 2 p.m. in Jones Chapel. Husband Frank Grubbs, former history professor, and family will receive friends following the service in the Chapel Common Room. Also during Alumnae Weekend, there will be the mural dedication service of the alumnae mural and panel memorial located in the stairwell of the Cate/Park Center. Associate professor of art Linda Fitz-Simmons and her student assistants (around 30) will lead the dedication service. The mural was created to honor the alumnae of Meredith College, hence the service during Alumnae Weekend.
