

Virginia Chorale. She has performed internationally in Canada, England, The Czech Republic, Austria, Germany, Switzerland, France and Italy. She has both taught and performed with many music festivals including the Breckenridge Music Institute, the National Repertory Orchestra, the Brevard Music Center, the National Orchestral Institute, Garth Newel Chamber Music Center and the North Carolina School of the Arts' International Music Program, where she soloed with orchestra throughout Europe. She and pianist/composer Gabriela Frank performed Frank's world premiere of "Rios Profundos" which was recently released with the Mallarmé Chamber Players of Durham, North Carolina, on a Capstone Records label under the titled, "It Won't Be The Same River."

Ms. Gilmore holds a Bachelor of Music degree and a Master of Music degree in Cello Performance from Indiana and Rice Universities. Her teachers include Janos Starker, Tsuyoshi Tsutsumi, Norman Fischer and Desmond Hoebig. Ms. Gilmore is a faculty member of the Academy of Music and Virginia Wesleyan College, where she teaches cello. She resides in Virginia Beach with her son, Benjamin James.