

as a couple and become financially stable before they had kids, which they said was important in making this lifestyle work. They also said it was important that the person who is staying home with the kids must want to stay home.

The internet is a good resource to find information and to meet other stay at home dads. The website www.slowlane.com is the best resource on the web.

Return to Top