

Let Meredith College Entertain You!

By Christy Nash
Staff Writer

"Gypsy" is the story of an overbearing stage mother during the roaring 20's. Watch what happens as her daughters grow up in the spotlight. This is an entertaining and eye-opening musical starring the theatre department head Cathy Rogers as Mama Rose. Performances are Thursday, February 22nd-Saturday, February 24th at 8:00 PM and Sunday, February 25th at 2:00 in Jones Auditorium. Besides Meredith students, the production will also feature staff and faculty members of the college community. Theater professor Catherine Rodgers will act as stage mother "Mama Rose," along with psychology professor Jack Huber who will play "Pops." Assistant Director of Study Abroad Kevin Morrison will act as "Uncle Jocko" and Sam Mozley. Also, faculty members, Allen Page, Danny Green and Brent Pitts will have small parts in the production. Please call the box office to reserve your ticket: 760-2840. Tickets are $10 general admission and $5 for students and seniors. This promises to be a fun-filled and entertaining evening!

Join the

We are looking to teach and mentor Meredith students who want to learn bridge and compete in the College Bridge Championships, where you can win an all expenses paid trip to the national finals. Using the Easybridge! method you'll learn bridge by playing. Join us Feb 15 at 7 PM, 3801 Hillsborough St. It's not your grandmother's game anymore.

For more information visit www.RaleighBridgeClub.org

American Contract Bridge League

