ground of Charming Evening and how it was started in 2001. The first Charming Evening, consisted of '25 to 45—depending on who you talk to,' who gathered in the Cate Center and ate chicken fingers before receiving their charms. The founder of Charming Evening thought that freshman year was an adjustment period; junior year, the students receive their rings; senior year, their diplomas; however sophomore year—not much, Jackson explained. Jackson also managed to get hold of an overhead slide to show the students the very first class charm from 2001.

Following Jackson's speech

came the long-awaited moment: the opening of the boxes. As students untied the pink ribbons and strung the charms onto their various necklaces, cameras flashed continually throughout the room. The t-shirts, which were not distributed at the dinner, will be delivered in the near future.

Have a Heart For the Homeless

Meals at Moore Square is an attempt at growing a heart for the people in downtown Raleigh who might be experiencing homelessness. It's not about merely feeding people who are hungry, though. It's about forming genuine relationships and really caring for the people there! The group is currently meet with 2-3 bag lunches on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 6:00 p.m. at the Vintage21 building (209 Oberlin Rd.) to pray & head downtown together. Meals at Moore Square welcomes help from everyone.
