

"At the pyramids, I was most impressed by the sight of the Sphinx silhouetted against a pyramid in the sunset glow. The desert road was white with an occasional bush, and, once in a while a glow of fire where nomads were cooking their evening meal. All very interesting, and we would not have missed the trip the Cairo but we were glad to sail the next morning for Rhodes with its memories of the Crusades."

JEANNE and AL MILLER asked us to thank their kind neighbors who came to the rescue when their granddaughter, TRICIA WHISENANT, 12, found herself being drawn with the current of the canal in a small boat toward the sound recently while visiting here in PKS. Millers are heartened by these gestures of people, some of whom they barely know. We, too, are impressed once again with the quality of the folks in our tiny town.

A FINISHING FLASH! The Ancient Mariners Bowling League proudly proclaims they have this year NINE BOWLING TEAMS, (four to a team) plus four spares. We'll keep readers informed on occasional top scorers.
