A nostalgic evening is promised when the Old Christmas celebration is held the evening of January 6 in downtown Beaufort. This event is sponsored by the Carteret Historical Research Assoc., Beaufort Garden Club, Morehead City Women's Club, Girl Scouts of Beaufort, and the Beaufort Women's Club. There will be an evening flag ceremony by the Girl Scouts, the burning of the Yule Log, Christmas music, and other festivities. Light refreshments will be available. Old Christmas has been a traditional Carteret County Celebration which many older residents still observe. C.H.R.A. recognizes this heritage and hopes to revitalize many of these old traditions.

Betty and Carl Hammon are home from their European wanderings, still excited about their trip, but happy to be back in Pine Knoll Shores again. They have been looking at their slides of the Alhambra with its wonderful lace-like decorations, its pools, and its beautiful gardens. And at the Alhambra, sitting on a garden wall, were two American girls, both from North Carolina. One came from Chapel Hill. The other knew where Pine Knoll Shores is because her parents own a lot here and get the Shore Line. Who would think that out of the hundreds of visitors at the Alhambra, four from North Carolina would be looking at the same garden at the same moment? Crowds? -- there were 500 tourists from Texas there and many others, but not too many lingering in the garden to enjoy the beauty of the Moorish palace.
