

PINE KNOLL SHORES

Women's Club

By Marian Goetzinger

There was no red carpet and the outfits didn't reveal plunging necklines or backless dresses, but the models were stunning, the clothing exciting, the location and view fabulous, the food exquisite and the show a huge success. When the women of Pine Knoll Shores host an event, you better get your tickets early unless you want to miss the social event of the season.

On February 23, in lieu of our regular meeting, the Pine Knoll Shores Women's Club, under the direction of co-chairs Marian Goetzinger and Paula Stadiem, presented a summer fashion show at The Country Club of the Crystal Coast. The theme of the event was "Summer Dreams," and fashions were presented by Sandy's Beachwear, Davis Beachwear, and AB Surf Shop and also included golf and tennis attire from the country club.

The sold-out crowd was treated to a silent auction featuring 50 beautiful donations, which raised over $1,300. Amy Hahn of Pine Knoll Shores Realty served as event coordinator. She and her husband, Roger, photographed the event and surprised guests with a complimentary photo booth for fun souvenirs (see the "Town Crier" pages in this issue of The Shoreline for more photos of the event). Dr. Kenneth Leigh Westbrook and wife Meredith greeted and registered guests. Meredith is a member of the Pine Knoll Shores Women's Club and served on the Fashion Show Committee along with Donna Ross and Ida Mazzoni, who completed the committee and served as model coordinators.

Pine Knoll Shores Mayor Ken Jones welcomed attendees and introduced the emcee of the day, Jami Turner, formerly a NewsChannel12 anchor. Ms. Turner presented each of the 10 models with enthusiasm and interesting notes about each model.

The models were escorted to the stage alternately by Ted Goetzinger, John Godfrey and Bob Ross, where they were assisted onto and off the stage by four Pine Knoll Shores police officers. The models were all members of the Women's Club, and included club president Betty Thomas; past presidents Bobbie Hill, Pegge Knecht, Kay Howe and Elaine Tempel; and members Maria DeCandia, Mary Greene, Teresa Wilson, Jean Turner and JoAnne Ferguson.

There were three separate raffles. Pine Knoll Shores Realty donated a beach basket, won by Moni Bottlinger; Sandy's Beachwear donated a complete Sharon Young outfit, and the winner will visit Sandy's and be fitted for her new outfit; and Ann Walker of Sandy's also donated a $50 gift card, which was taped underneath a chair cushion and discovered by a delighted Peggy Young. The 50/50 raffle collected $321, with half of that going to a very pleased Kelly Arnett.
