Town Crier

PKS bear? While all the children in the village of Pine Knoll Shores slept quietly in their beds, a trail camera captured an image of a creature lurking just outside the front door. The trail camera belongs to resident Joseph Campobasso, who lives on Hawthorne Drive and bought the camera after a close encounter with a coyote. Careful inspection (and photo enhancement) reveals that the "bear" is actually a curious raccoon. April Fool.—Photo courtesy of Mr. Campobasso
