

BHA Events

The Beaufort Historical Association (BHA) has scheduled some activities but is following state and federal guidelines regarding COVID-19. Please register in advance for events that require registration by calling 728-5225, visiting beauforthistoricsite.org or stopping in at the Beaufort Historic Site Welcome Center located at 130 Turner Street in Beaufort. Since events listed here are subject to change, please check the latest schedule for events prior to the date listed.

Beginning Rug Hooking. August 14, 10 a.m.-2 p.m. $25. Rug hooking has been around for centuries. It started out for those who could not afford machine-made carpets and would use scraps of materials that were available at the time. It is still a time-honored craft, and we would like to invite you to come learn how to hook a small piece to take home.

Janet Jaworski Art Opening. August 15, 5-7 p.m. Free. Join the Mattie King Davis Art Gallery in welcoming Janet Jaworski for an art opening. Jaworski paints coastal scenes that include wildlife, boats and vibrant landscapes. Light refreshments will be served during the opening.

"Down East Miss Sue" by Janet Jaworski

Barn Quilt Workshop. August 20, 10 a.m.-2 p.m. $60. A barn quilt is a large piece of painted wood that looks like a single quilt block and is used to decorate the side of a barn or building. Participants in this workshop will create 24-inch-square barn quilts to take home.

Double-Decker Bus Tours. Wednesday-Saturday, 1:30 p.m. Adults, $12; Children 6-12, $6. Hop aboard and see Beaufort's historic district from atop our 1967 English double-decker bus. Local narrators tell tales of Beaufort's rich past of pirates, star-crossed lovers and Confederate spies.

Adventure Dog

Scene fades out.

I remember at the time that there were endless possibilities for future episodes like "Adventure Dog Gets Fed" and "Adventure Dog Goes for a Ride in the Car." The car episode would have a sequel called "Adventure Dog Sees Another Dog and Barks Real Loud for 116 Miles." Last would be my favorite episode, "Adventure Dog Goes Home to Tennessee."

All did eventually end well. When Jami's knee was recovered enough and rehab was completed, Ritchie did return home to her in Tennessee where he avoided any more tragedies. From Tennessee Jami moved to a TV station in High Point, and Ritchie-Damit tagged along. In High Point Jami met and married a co-worker, soon had a daughter and decided that Ritchie was maybe a bit too hyper and undisciplined to have around a new baby. The choice between daughter and dog was no contest. Happily, she found a wonderful home for him on a farm where he lived to chase farm animals for fun all day. Good dog, Ritchie. Run, Ritchie, run. Run west, Ritchie.
