

Noah Trigg, grandson of Janie and Jerry Price, on his first day of virtual 4th grade at Barrett Elementary School in Arlington, Virginia.—Photo by Marianne Trigg Price

Peyton Smith, daughter of Cheryl and Bryan Smith, on her first day of 8th grade at Morehead City Middle School, along with her two-year old goldendoodle Banks.

—Photo by Bryan Smith

Sergio Hewitt, grandson of Nan and David Gildner, is already hard at work on his first day of online 6th grade at C & L McDougle Middle School in Chapel Hill.

—Photo by Paula Hewitt

The children of Al and Lesley Wheeler ready to start the new year (from left): fifth grader Caleb and fourth grader Grace, both at Morehead City Elementary School; Peyton, an eighth grader at Morehead City Middle School; and Cameron, a second grader at Morehead City Primary School.—Photo by Lesley Wheeler

A smile during the pandemic

Announcing the birth of Lillie's precious pups, 6 little girls and 5 little boys, born August 27th.

Janie and Alan Hinnant are pleased to announce the arrival of black lab Lillie's puppies (all 11 of them!), born in late August. The puppies are healthy and thriving and will be ready to meet new owners around the end of October—just in time for Thanksgiving. Janie can be reached at 252-315-2556—Photos by Bonnie DeLong and Janie Hinnant

Copies of the current issue of The Shoreline are now available in the side foyer at town hall, which is accessible during and after business hours.

