

Garden Club Spreads Christmas Cheer

The Pine Knoll Shores Garden Club continued its tradition of sharing festive decorations around town and also in Beaufort.

Holiday swags created by the Garden Club for decorating around Pine Knoll Shores and the Cape Lookout National Seashore Visitor Center in Beaufort.—Photo by Susan King

From left: Susan King, Kim Elliott, Toni Cox and Jennifer Bryan decorate inside the Cape Lookout Visitor Center.

—Photo by Ranger Kathleen O'Grady

Linda Langheld (left) and Jean McDanal were obviously enjoying their time decorating in Beaufort.—Photo by Susan King

From left, Garden Club members Kim Elliott, Kathy Blowers, Toni Cox, Jennifer Bryan, Lisa Park, Susan King, Jean McDanal and Linda Langheld at the Cape Lookout Visitor Center.

—Photo by Ranger Kathleen O'Grady

Congratulations to Haley Moccia, pictured here with parents Dave and Anne Moccia of Pine Knoll Shores, who has successfully completed a dual master's program at UNC—Wilmington, obtaining a Master of Science in Environmental Science and a Master of Public Administration. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Environmental Science from UNCW in 2019 and graduated from Croatan High School in 2015. Haley is employed as a planner for Carolina Beach.

From left, Garden Club members Linda Langheld, Gina Harris, Susan King and Jean McDanal took time from busy schedules to decorate the town hall Christmas tree.—Photo by John Brodman

Some members of the History Committee presented a holiday wreath to Betty Carr in appreciation for her assistance to the committee during the year. Left to right: Jean Macheca, Michelle Powers, Betty Carr and Susan Phillips.—Photo by Erica Reed

Town Crier