

American Music Festival

By Linda Seale

The American Music Festival continues its 2021-2022 chamber music series on Saturday, January 29. The Verona Quartet will perform chamber music favorites, including Beethoven's Op. 131 and Schubert's Quartettsatz. The Verona Quartet has firmly established itself among the most distinguished ensembles on the chamber music scene today and was awarded the Chamber Music America's coveted Cleveland Quartet Award, thus joining the roster of many great American quartets.

The Verona Quartet will perform on January 29.

The concert will be held at 7:30 p.m. at First Presbyterian Church, 1604 Arendell Street in Morehead City. Tickets may be purchased at the door or online at AmericanMusicFestival.org. Adult tickets are $32, and student, teacher and active military tickets are $16. COVID regulations will be in effect, and masks are encouraged.

Come enjoy live music up close and personal. You will be glad you did. For more information, contact Linda Seale at 252-726-0478.

event was going to be held, and we want to make it easy to remember: Saturday evening after Thanksgiving. Next year, we hope to expand the park part of the event with, hopefully, a food truck or another local vendor for beverages.

Thank you to all who attended at McNeill Park and, of course, to all of our boaters, captains and crews that make our town a wonderful community of caring citizens.

Nationally recognized.
Close to home.

Once again, we've been recognized as one of America's top hospitals for patient safety by The Women's Choice Awards. For the communities we serve, this distinction ensures the highest levels of clinical performance and patient satisfaction.
