

First Day of School 2022

As our children head back to school this year, we wish them the very best for happiness and success.

Abigail Smith, granddaughter of Tom and Pam Smith and daughter of Garrett and Katie Smith of Raleigh, on her first day of preschool at Kindercare Raleigh.—Photo by Katie Smith

Wyatt Willis, son of Trey and Sarah Kate Willis, is in the three-year-old Pre-K class at Carteret Preschool Center.

—Photo by Sarah Kate Willis

The children of Melanie Boudreau: Blake Boudreau (left) is in the first grade at Morehead City Primary School, and Beau Boudreau is in the fifth grade at Morehead Elementary at Camp Glenn. Both boys play with Newport Vikings Football.

—Photo by Melanie Boudreau

Caroljne Farmer, daughter of Pine Knoll Shores homeowners Julia and TJ Farmer, with the family hound Otis on her first day of second grade.—Photo by Julia Farmer

From left, Junior Hatcher Brower, seventh grader Macon-Rives Brower and ninth grader Sawyer Brower, children of Heather and Daryl Brower. All three are home schooled at Brower Christian Academy and participate in the Challenge Programs with Classical Conversations of Morehead City. Macon-Rives plays volleyball and is a member of the National Charity League Mothers and Daughters, Hatcher and Sawyer participate in the homeschool Beta Club, and both serve as mates on offshore fishing boats (Miss E for Hatcher and Labrador for Sawyer). All three enjoy hunting and fishing.—Photos by Heather Brower

