

Garden Club Work Day

Members of the Garden Club spent a sunny afternoon in October clearing out the town gardens and getting them ready for the winter weather to come.

Kay Foy (left) and former member Lana Hathaway, here on vacation, working at Pine Knoll Boulevard—Photo by Susan King

From left, Gina Harris, Stacy Bagley, Jean McDanal, Val Ryan, Linda Pearson, Carolyn Kulynych and Linda Langheld working the west side of Pine Knoll Boulevard.—Photo by Susan King

Jak Kramer was promoted to major after he relinquished command of Weapons Company, 2nd Battalion, 25th Marines, a Marine Reserve Infantry Battalion, known as the Empire Battalion, out of New York. He works in banking with Credit Suisse in New York City. Jak's grandfather promoted him, and his parents pinned him. From left: Mel Manbeck (aunt), Joe McCollum (grandfather), Maj. Jak Kramer, Brian Kramer (father), Tricia Kramer (mother), and Duane Manbeck (uncle)—Photo courtesy of the family

A total of 28 workers started at the Oakleaf garden and finished on Roosevelt Boulevard

—Photo by Paul Harris