NEW BUSINESS IN TOWN

Introducing Spoondrift Corner Market

It has been a long time since we have welcomed a new business to Pine Knoll Shores, and it's exciting. Spoondrift fits the definition of a business long described in our town's Strategic Plan as something needed here—a place where citizens could go, get a bite to eat, something to drink and visit with their friends right here in town. At Spoondrift, located between Pine Knoll Shores Realty and the library at 320 Salter Path Road, you can even shop for that last-minute gift from offerings by local artists and craftspeople.

Dreamed and created by Marian Goetzinger and Amy Hahn, a mother/daughter team, Spoondrift is as unique and local as Pine Knoll Shores. The walls are decorated with local art and news clippings, including some from the original sales brochures for our town. As much as possible, Amy and Marian have used vendors and artists from North Carolina and especially the Crystal Coast. Take time to appreciate the truly local décor. Much of it came from their own homes

Shoreline Editor At Large Needed

We need a volunteer to join our friendly and professional editorial staff. This position requires an average commitment of 4-5 flexible hours per month, generally concentrated in the first half of the month. Articles are reviewed and edited in Microsoft Word and are transmitted via email, making this a perfect at-home opportunity. Candidates should have expertise in grammar and punctuation and be capable of evaluating content for context and syntax. This is a great way to contribute your time and talent to Pine Knoll Shores and stay on top of activities in town. To learn more, please email janie.price@gmail.com.
