

The Shoreline

Vol. 18, No. 4

A Shoreline Community, Pine Knoll Shores, N.C.

April 2023

50th Anniversary Details
See pages 2, 4, 8, 10, 13, 23, 31

PKS History Reimagined
See pages 16-17

Bulk Item/White Goods and Hazardous Waste Disposal
See pages 26 & 29

Pine Knoll Shores 50th Anniversary Events

April 22, 2023

Rain Date: April 29

Pine Knoll Shores Town Hall and Grounds

Join the not-to-be-missed Pine Knoll Shores 50th Anniversary celebration on April 22 at the Pine Knoll Shores town hall for a day of family fun with games, food, town history displays, giveaways, items for sale, music and more. See list above for article locations throughout this issue with details of club's individual events.

11 a.m.—Celebration begins (all booths are open)

Pine Knoll Shores History Committee's displays and slide shows begin inside town hall, including town history books, children's coloring book station and more

Bouncy house and children's games (Go Fishing, Ping Pong, Nerf Football Throw, Battleship, Rubik's Cube, Hungry Hippos and more)

50th Anniversary t-shirt sales

Garden Club plant, hand scrub and garden gloves sale as well as free popcorn

Appearance Commission tree giveaway

Self-Guided History Tour (maps inside town hall)

Police and Fire Department Vehicles

11:30 a.m.—Welcome & Opening Remarks

PKS Mayor John Brodman

PKS Historians

Introduction of Special Guests

12 noon—Lunch (no cost)

PKS Women's Club (NC BBQ sandwiches)

PKS Fire Auxiliary, Fire & Police Departments (hot dogs, hamburgers and free ice cream)

Children's Games resume (Toss Across, Hopscotch, Jump Rope, and more)

Important details

In the event of inclement weather, the call will be made on April 20 to change to the rain date. Notification of a change will be by town-wide email and Facebook posts. Attendees are encouraged to bring folding chairs if desired. Any high school-age youth who are willing to assist with children's games are encouraged to contact Martha Edwards at edwardsmartha1944@gmail.com or 252-723-5532.

The circle in front of town hall is reserved for handicapped parking. Others should park diagonally along Pine Knoll Boulevard.

The following Pine Knoll Shores clubs/commissions and community organizations are scheduled to have booths at the celebration: Appearance Commission, Council on Aging, Friends of the Bogue Banks Public Library, Garden Club, History Committee, Kayak for the Warriors, Parks & Recreation Committee, Pine Knoll Association, NC Aquarium at Pine Knoll Shores, Trinity Center and Women's Club.

1 p.m.—Children's Races (Three-Legged Race, Sack Race, Hippy Hop Race, Big Wheel Race)

2 p.m.—Children's Races repeat, Pennies in the Sawdust

2:30 p.m.—Scavenger Hunt (open to children and adults)

3 p.m.—Children's Races repeat

3:30 p.m.—Awards & Prizes

4 p.m.—Celebration concludes

Standard
Pre-Sort
Permit #35
Atlantic Beach, NC 28512

THE Shoreline