

piers, columns, pillars, or other supports of similar nature, which protrude above ground, such supports shall be screened from public view (from streets, cul de sacs parks, beaches, etc.) with materials similar to or compatible with that used for the rest of the building or structure or, at the option of the owner, by natural topography, shrubs, trees, or foundation plantings in such manner as the Community appearance Commission shall find acceptable. All plans for screening shall first be submitted to the Community Appearance Commission for comment. Such screening may not subsequently be removed, replaced, or modified without approval of the Community Appearance Commission." Further revision is under consideration.

E. W. CRAWFORD

With six years of active police work and 21 years in the sensitive military intelligence and investigation affairs, Edgar W. Crawford has been named chief of police for Pine Knoll Shores. For the past six years he has been a sergeant with the Emerald Isle police department.

NAMED POLICE CHIEF

Born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Mr. Crawford enlisted in the United States Navy in 1954 and was subsequently assigned to the Naval Intelligence Scientific and Technical Division serving in Germany. He was discharged in 1957 and joined the communications department of the multi-police department in Trydeffiran Township, Pennsylvania.

Two years later he returned to the military, enlisting in the Marine Corps where he subsequently served two tours in Vietnam, and also at Parris Island, Fort Holibird, New River, North Carolina, and Camp Lejeune and Fort Bragg. He was discharged after 21 years of service in May 1975. During his military career he was graduated from the U.S. Army Military Intelligence School and served as intelligence chief and security officer at various locations. He retired with the rank of Gunnery Sergeant.

Mr. Crawford is married and the father of three children, two girls and a boy, and his wife, Shirley, will shortly be looking for a home in Pine Knoll Shores.

BOARD DELAYS ACTION

After listening to comments concerning the performance of Vision Cable and the explanations of the company's managers, the Board of Commissioners deferred action on the matter of the cable company's proposal to merge with the Newhouse Group, Inc. Apparently, in some respects, the matter is academic, since the merger already has been accomplished.

ON VISION CABLE

Representing Vision Cable at the public meeting were Ted Crane, systems manager at Morehead City; Sam McConkey, attorney for the company, and Roger Martin, chief engineer.

Residents of Pine Knoll Shores and subscribers to Vision Cable expressed reservations concerning the cable company's performance and service with respect to an FM channel, interruption of service, quality of reception, rates for present service, interference of channel 7 of non-subscribers' sets, and plans for a civil