BOARD SETS LIQUOR

The Pine Knoll Shores Board of Commissioners at the August 4 meeting, voted unanimously for a referendum on liquor by the drink to be held at the time of the general election in November.

VOTE FOR NOVEMBER

The meeting was attended by residents of the town and by the managers and/or owners of the several motels located in Pine Knoll Shores. These included Ruth Bray and A. C. Hall, of the Atlantis; Jeff Fazio of the Holiday Inn; Don Creech of the John Yancey; Doren Kilpatrick of the Ramada, and Roger Champine of the Whaler Inn. Ruth Bray acted as spokesperson for the group, although each did individually express themselves on the matter.

During the discussion, it was pointed out that in the event the citizens voted to reject liquor by the drink in the town, the matter could not be brought up again for three years. Commissioner Dixon also expressed the opinion that the sale of liquor by the drink would attract additional transients to the town which could result in additional expenses for police and rescue calls. The board again, however, emphasized its position that it would take no stand on the vote, with the decision being entirely in the hands of the voters.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Mayor Cleveland recommended the following appointments to standing committees of the town and which were subsequently approved by the Board. Joining the Planning Board for two year terms are Curt Johnson,
