OUR NEW

Kate and Forest Mangum moved from Laurel Hill, N. C., near Laurinburg, to 135 Hawthorne. They had lived on a farm growing a pasture and at one time raising pigs.

NEIGHBORS

They decided to retire to Pine Knoll Shores. Both are graduates of St. Andrews College. Forest likes to fish. He has a workshop in the garage where he makes bookcases and "other things" for the children. Kate enjoys gardening, bird watching, latch hook rug making and some cooking. They have two children, David, five years old, who will begin kindergarten in the fall, and Genia, three. They have two mutts, named Judy and Sarah.

Marge and Karl Kalning found Pine Knoll Shores as they were seeking a place where they could retire. While staying at the Whaler Inn they went looking around Pine Knoll Shores and ran into the Hallers. They had been coming here for five years before retiring. In March they began moving into their new home at 116 Walnut Circle. Since then Karl has been working on the interior of the home doing wood finishing and other things. Prior to retirement, he had been Sales Manager for Hope's Windows in Jamestown, N. Y. The firm manufactures commercial and architectural windows. Both Karl and Marge enjoy fishing, boating, the water and gardening. Also she likes crafts and flower arranging. They have a daughter and two grandsons.--Olga Hedrick
