VOLUME VII - Number 9

September 1986

Mary Korff, Editor

The Commissioners held a work session with the Building Inspector and the Planning Board prior to the regular September Board Meeting.

COMMISSIONERS    At the recommendation of Commissioner Johnson, the Board decided to apply MEET                to join the North Carolina Cash Management Trust. Interest rates are better right now than the town is getting.

Preliminary approval was granted to Wachovia Bank to erect a building as a subdivision of the shopping center. Only the subdivision is approved. Actual building plans will need separate approval.

Commissioner Shedd once again appealed to residents to refrain from placing trash on the right-of-way. It should not be put there until arrangements have been made to pick it up. This is done through the Town Hall or Waste Industries.

The Rescue Squad answered five calls in August, the Fire Department one, the Police Department 159 and 88 citations were issued.

George Falkenberg retired as chairman of the Planning Board at the end of his term. The Commissioners appointed Clyde Lynn the new chairman. A. C. Hall was appointed and sworn in as a new member of the Planning Board and Harry Schlimper, Grant Roper and Godfrey Zumbach were reappointed.

Rachel Mangum and Morgan Hammer were appointed to fill the vacancies on the Community Appearance Commission.

Andy Torney, Ed Philipson, Emily White and Aubrey Johnson were appointed to the Board of Trustees of the Firemen's Local Relief Fund.

Mayor Hanan reported on steps being taken as a result of the meetings held with other town and county officials concerning civil preparedness. He said that the mayors of the towns on Bogue Banks will now make the decisions concerning evacuation of Bogue Banks independent of County officials. They will have access to more current weather information and will use the radio stations WMBL and WBTB as official broadcasters. In other words, if
