

ANCIENT MARINERS

President Marty Hare is happy to declare that our Mid-Season Banquet at the Country Club was a success from all points of view. 92 bowlers and/or spouses attended; the food and entertainment was relished by all.

At this writing only 9 weeks remain on the schedule. Millie Herbst's team has managed to stay in first place, but several are close behind; namely George Broadstreet and Bob Gallo.

The 200-plus club included Ed Peter [215], Bob Kent [200], Frank Herbst [222] and Brad Smith [207]. Vivian Macdonald [189] and Millie Herbst [184] were in the 180 plus club; Lily Zaminer, Janie Briley and Edna Kent almost made it.

Believe it - or not - Ed Peters says he washes his bowling ball each week before bowling. [Don't knock it if you haven't tried it!]

NORTH CAROLINA AQUARIUM NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

The North Carolina Aquarium is looking for volunteers to assist the staff in some of the Aquarium's operations. A few of the areas where help is needed include presenting sea turtle and touchtank programs, helping with school groups, collecting animals, grounds maintenance and photography.

An organizational meeting for those interested in volunteering will be held at the Aquarium on March 1, at 4 p.m. For more information, please contact the Aquarium at 247-4003 or Lenora Roberson, coordinator of volunteers at 247-4190.

WINTER FILM PROGRAM

The BOGUE BANKS LIBRARY will continue its free film program through February and March. These films are shown in the auditorium of the North Carolina Aquarium on Fridays at 2:30 p.m.

February 19 -STRIKE UP THE BAND - 1940

Cast: Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland, Paul Whiteman. A musical comedy about a high school orchestra director and his mishaps in getting his orchestra to a national concert. 120 minutes.

February 26 - BROADWAY MELODY OF 1938 - 1938

Cast: Robert Taylor, Eleanor Powell, George Murphy, Binnie Barnes, Buddy Ebsen. A typical Hollywood stereotyping of American society during the 1930's through use of the musical genre to promote the myth that "success is just a step or song away." 110 minutes.

March 4 - PRIDE AND PREJUDICE - 1940

Cast: Greer Garson, Sir Laurence Olivier, Maureen O'Sullivan, Mary Boland, Ann Rutherford.

A comedy of manners set in 18th century provincial England. The captivating Bennett family of five sisters in search of husbands, their frankly scheming mother, and wisely retiring father is thrown into a dither at the approach of an eligible male. 118 minutes
