

UNC BI-CENTENNIAL OBSERVANCE

In 1993, The University of North Carolina will be celebrating 200 years as a publicly-funded university, the first one in the U.S. to become operational (Georgia was the first chartered, but did not start operating until 1801; UNC started in 1793). Since something like this takes considerable (!) planning, UNC is getting started. Somehow, I (not an aumnus) became associated with this. The committee would greatly appreciate any input it can get. If you are a UNC graduate and would have any ideas, please call Jack Millis at 247-5985. If you are not a UNC graduate, but have any ideas, plaese call Jack Millis at 247-5985.
