Happy Halloween

Hello Again! Can you believe that it is 9 weeks until Christmas! On Sunday, October 25 at 2:00 AM, turn the clocks back! We gain an hour. On October 31, we'll have little ghosts and goblins visiting our homes, please watch out for them. Remember to do your patriotic duty on November 3rd. We have a wonderful right given to us by our forefathers and we don't cherish it. VOTE! VOTE! VOTE! VOTE! VOTE! On November 11, we honor our Veterans, those who died and those still living. To these wonderful people, we say thank you from the bottom of our hearts. On November 26, it's Turkey day! Wouldn't it be wonderful if the weather was like last year - 80° The deadline for articles for the December Shoreline will be Thursday, November 12. Have a wonderful Fall, see you next month. Sincerely,

Thank you for the Big Sweep!

Dear Editors Peirce:

The "Big Sweep" held on September 19, 1992, for Pine Knoll Shores was a big success thanks to seventeen hard-working residents. Thirty (30) bags of trash were collected; items to be recycled were separated and properly disposed of; tires, large pieces of lumber and thousands of cigarette butts were removed from our beaches. My heartfelt "Thanks" to the following people and to my husband, Bill, for a JOB WELL DONE:

- Joy Amico, Fred Hannula, Paul & Mary Heim,
- Kim Leguillow, Nancy Marshall,
- Jerry and Marge Michael, Helen Morris,
- Gerry Preye, Lenora Roberson,
- Lois & Bill Strube, Patti & Charlie Swetz,
- Doris & Harvey Varner

Sincerely, Judy Poit

P.S. We certainly could have used some additional volunteers to make the job a little easier.
