◆ EDITOR'S CORNER

Halloween is past, Thanksgiving is around the corner, then it's Christmas time and New Years! Where has time gone! We are only 6 years away from the year 2000. Where will YOU be then? One must have goals, no matter your age, you must have something to work for and toward. My goals are modest. I want happiness, contentment and the knowledge that I've done the best that I can. I'm in the new AA/First Responder Class to be an Ambulance Driver and the satisfaction that I'm receiving from this endeavor in knowing that one day I'll be able to help someone the way that Jim and I were helped, is deeper than words can convey. Look for something to do that will give you this satisfaction. It's a wonderful feeling! Have a plentiful turkey day.

Town Histories

Two different style histories of Pine Knoll Shroes were presented to the Board of Commissioners during it's meeting on October 12 and are now available at both Town Hall and the Library. "The Story of Pine Knoll Shores", a 16-page booklet, written by Art Browne, Ken Hanan and Mary Korff details the beginnings, the years of growth, organizing a town government, volunteerism and nature's influence. "Pine Knoll Shores, 1959-1993, A Chronological History" was compiled by former Mayor Ken Hanan from material researched and utilized in the preparation of "The Story of Pine Knoll Shores." It outlines major events that took place in the town's history, including conception, infancy, growth and maturity. Copies of the "Story of Pine Knoll Shores" are available at Town Hall for $1 each, while two bound copies of the chronological history are at Town Hall and one copy is at the Library.
