

BOGUE BANKS PUBLIC LIBRARY

"Between the Book Ends" book discussion group will resume their meetings on Jan. 9 at 11:30 a.m. (note time change) in the library auditorium. P.D. James and Dashiell Hammett will be the authors for discussion.

The winter film series sponsored by the Bogue Banks Friends of the Library will begin Jan. 19 at 1:30 in the auditorium of the library. "The Guns of Navarone" will be the first film. This series will run through the end of February and will be shown each Thurs. at 1:30. Please call the library at 247-4660 if you wish more information.

Tax classes will also be held in the library auditorium each Tues. & Fri. from 12:30 til 4:30 during the month of January. Tax materials should be available at the library beginning Jan. 1.

15 new books-on-tape for the library with funds from our "Friends" organization have arrived. These are unabridged, so they will be somewhat longer in case they are needed for a long auto trip. Please come in and enjoy. The newest books to arrive for December are as follows: All Our Yesterdays by Parker, Joshua by Girzone, The Lottery Winner by Clark, Running from Safety by Bach, and The Hot Zone by Preston.

As 1994 comes to a close, the staff here at the library would like to express our heartfelt thanks to our "Friends" organization, our volunteers, and our "handymen" who have helped us in so many ways during the past year. We wish you health and happiness in the coming year.

The library will be closed Mon., Jan. 2 and Mon., Jan. 16 for holidays.

Ernestine Conway, Librarian

WELCOME NEW NEIGHBORS

Bill and Connie Brophy just moved into their lovely home at 104 Acorn Court on November 4. They relocated here from Washingtonville in Orange County, NY. Bill was a captain in the NY State Troopers, now retired, and Connie, who is an RN, was a college instructor and public health nurse.

They have two daughters, Shana, who lives in Houston, Texas and works for the Windham Corp. as a sales manager. Pat, who is a 3rd mate in the Merchant Marines. She just graduated from the Maritime College at Fort Schuyler, NY.

Bill and Connie came our way via a trip to Fairfield Harbor. They wanted the ocean so they bought a condo at Southwinds. When Bill retired, they came to their dream area, Pine Knoll Shores, and bought their home.

Bill is interested in just about everything, but especially rowing. He belongs to the Beaufort Oars, a rowing group. He is also a wood-carver, boat builder and sailor. Connie loves to cook and shares Bill's enthusiasm for the water; boating, sailing and fishing.

When I asked them how they like it here, they said that they love it. "As if you died and went to heaven," says Connie. We welcome them.

Judy Poit

Iryma and Billy Webb moved into their home at 522 Egret Lake Drive, Beacons Reach, with a fabulous view over the Lake, in September, 1993. They came from Winston Salem. Iryma is a native North Carolinian originally from Rocky Mount. Billy is from Tennessee.