

BOGUE BANKS PUBLIC LIBRARY

The book sale at the library on March 25 was very successful. If you could not attend this sale, there will be another one held in August. Our thanks go to everyone who donated books or helped with the sale.

A donation has been given to the library by Regional Children's Librarian, Ann Johnston, to be used for the purchase of a book in memory of Jo Cox. A donation has also been given by the Pine Knoll Shores Garden Club for the purchase of a book on gardening in honor of Ken and Yola Hanan. The Hanans will be moving from Pine Knoll Shores. These people have given much support to the library over the years in their time and effort. We appreciate this very much.

In our auditorium for the months of May and June, will be hung works in mixed media by David O'Kelly and Myles Lobdell. In the display cabinets will be Indian artifacts collected by Al Schmidt. Please come by and enjoy.

New books at the library are as follows: The Cat Who Blew the Whistle by Braun, Self-Defense by Kellerman, McNally's Trial by Sanders, Original Sin by James, Kiss the Girls by Pattersen, The Death of Common Sense by Howard, Border Music by Waller, Phenomenal Woman by Angelou, The Beardstown Ladies'

Common-Sense Investment Guide by Whitaker and Home Song by Spencer.

The library will be closed for the Memorial Day Holiday on Monday, May 29.

Ernestine Conway, Librarian
