

NC AQUARIUM AT PINE KNOLL SHORES

Come and join the Aquarium staff at the Holiday Open House on Friday, December 8, 1995 at the NC Aquarium. Admission will be free the entire day! The Aquarium will be decorated, holiday music will be playing, and refreshments will be served from 4:00 to 6:00 pm. It's a great way to celebrate the season along with neighbors, friends, volunteers, and employees of the Aquarium.

Welcome New Residents

Jane and Bill Ashland have moved into their house at 103 Sycamore Drive. The house is charming, nestled well back in the woods. Jane and Bill have owned the house for three years, but it has been a rental. Now Jane has retired and Bill will retire in January. Bill is still "on the road" a good part of the time.

Jane was brought up in Bridgeport, Conn, and Bill was raised in New York City. Since they were married six years ago, they have been living in Avon, Conn.

Bill is a sales rep for Kamatics Corporation out of Bloomfield, Conn. and Jane worked for Lawrence Hill Book publishers in Westport, Conn.

Jane has three daughters; Leslie, Newport Beach, CA, who has a three-year old daughter; Lisa, Fairfield, Conn, who has one son 2 years old; and Mary, in Coral Springs, FL, who has one son two years' old. Bill has a daughter, Susan, in New York City.

Their cousin used to dock a boat in Beaufort and told them what a lovely area this was, so they vacationed here several times looking for a place and finally found their lovely home. They enjoy the ocean and the weather.

Jane enjoys gardening, tennis, cooking, reading - will babysit cats and dogs or volunteer to drive someone "wherever." Bill enjoys golfing and fishing.

Lynda and Eddie Harrington have purchased and moved into the beautiful home previously owned by Macon Snowden at 210 Oakleaf Drive. Take notice of the cutest bird house nestled between the garage and front entrance.

Lynda was born in Pitt County outside Greenville, NC, and Eddie was born in Baltimore, MD. After ten years he migrated to North Carolina. They graduated from Rose High School, Greenville, and both graduated from East Carolina University.

They have three children; a son, Trey, graduate of East Carolina, has his own company, Seascaper Landscaping and Maintenance, in Wilmington, NC, a daughter, Anna, an East Carolina Grad living in San Francisco, CA, who is an advertising agency account executive for Crystal Cruises, and the youngest son, Richard, a grad of North Carolina State, who has his own business in Greenville called Earth Tones Landscaping and Maintenance Company.

Lynda taught grades 3,4 and 5 in Greenville and works for Sunshine Gardens.

Eddie owns five Sunshine Gardens; Greenville, New Bern, Goldsboro, Morehead City and
