NOVEMBER BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS MEETING

ANNUAL AUDIT

Town Auditor Lee Carroll presented the annual audit and commended the Commissioners on their stewardship of town funds. The audit was given an unqualified status, the highest possible. Auditor Carroll gave credit to the citizens for their prompt payment of taxes, and to the staff for their assistance in maintaining accurate financial records.

BEACH PRESERVATION

The Beach Preservation Survey has been completed with 2,284 surveys mailed to property owners and 1,436 (63%) returned. Of the ballots returned, there were 887 (62%) no votes, 524 (36%) yes votes, and 25 (2%) invalid ballots, not signed or marked. Ballots postmarked after November 10 were not counted. Mayor Hasulak stated that the Board will work with the County Commissioners and State Officials to get beach renourishment for the entire island.

WATER REPORT

The new president of Carolina Water Service will be meeting with Mayor Hasulak and Commissioner Gallo in December to consider the sale of the water company to the town. Perry Owens has been replaced in his position at Carolina Water service and the new officer has to familiarize himself with the project.
