JUNE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS MEETING

PUBLIC HEARING

BUDGET FY 1997-98

The Board of Commissioners unanimously adopted the proposed FY 1997-98 Budget. They worked diligently to achieve a budget that was revenue neutral. There being no comments on the proposed budget at the Public Hearing, gave an affirmative response to the Board from the citizens that our interests are being protected.

LAND USE PLAN

Planner Dale Holland presented the completed and edited FY96 Land Use Plan for adoption by the Board of Commissioners. The Board voted unanimously to send the Plan to the Coastal Resources Commission for certification at their July meeting. All of the Town's policies in the Land Use Plan either meet or exceed the State's minimum use standards for areas of environmental concern.

HAZARD MITIGATION GRANTS

The N.C. Division of Emergency Management has reviewed the two projects submitted by the Town for the Hazard Mitigation Grant Program. The first grant for alleviating the flooding in the eastern section of Town has been approved for an approximate cost of $270,500. The second grant for sand fencing and revegetating the 4.7 miles of frontal dunes, at an estimated cost of $133,700, is also in the final approval stage.
