Pine Knoll Shores was well represented recently at the aquarium's annual October volunteer luncheon at the Veranda Restaurant in Beaufort. More than 70 volunteers attended the noon event and, again Four on the Isle delighted listeners with a medley of four-part harmony favorites.

Mistress of ceremonies Brigitte Tuner, the aquarium's longtime volunteer coordinator and a resident of Pine Knoll Shores, presented a bevy of awards to volunteers. Sheryl Woodbury of Pine Knoll Shores received the Alex Trebek Award for the many hours she spent developing the popular "Aquarium Jeopardy" game, and Carol Murphy of Pine Knoll Shores received a special Sweat Shop award for hosting the "Aquarium Quiz" summer game series. Many other volunteers received Sweat Shop awards for working at "discovery stations" during the summer's twice-weekly Shark and Reptile Days, which attracted hundreds of additional visitors. Fourteen volunteers received three-year service pins. Nine received five-year pins and nine others received gifts for contributing more than 100 volunteer hours.

Bowling News

The Ancient Mariners had their kick off party at the Ramada Inn on September 30. About seventy-two people attended an evening of fun and good eats. Our Secretary, Del Erickson, handed out sheets that told what team we were on and our schedule for the season. President, Stacey Veros welcomed everyone back and said she hoped for a great year.

On September 6th bowling began. Everyone was rusty but a good time was had by all. There were some good scores as well as bad.

League Scratch Leader:

Women:	Tina Keefe	171
	Doe Martynowski	164
	Jan Maxwell	421
	Doe Martynowski	419
Men:	Bill Franze	224
	Wally Williams	197
	Bob Gallo	469
	Wally Williams	465

Our leading high average for the men is Bill Franze with a 172 average and for the women is Tina Keefe with a 151 average. It will be tough to try and top those averages. Bill had a 518 series and Tina had a 453 series.

Bowling News Update

The Mariners have now finished five weeks of bowling. We are having a great time and getting some good scores. There are some interesting things happening at the alleys, ask Teddy Wimberly, whose delivery is very unusual.
