2009 MCAS Cherry Point Air Show Announces Dates

Canadian Snowbirds jet team highlight as premiere act

North Carolina's largest air show, the MCAS Cherry Point Air Show, has announced that it will host the area's premiere spectator event May 15 to 17, 2009. The East Coast's largest Marine Corps air station will again open its gates to the public for its now annual open house highlighting the latest in Marine Corps war fighting technology and military aviation. This year marks the premiere appearance of the world famous Canadian Snowbirds precision jet team. The Snowbirds demonstration team is a Canadian icon comprised of members of the Canadian Forces. Their pilots and technicians work as a team to bring thrilling performances to the North American air show public. Serving as Canadian ambassadors, the Snowbirds demonstrate the highest level of professionalism, teamwork, excellence, discipline and dedication inherent in the women and men of the Air Force and the Canadian Forces. On Friday, May 15, the air show will again host the state's only Night Show, featuring afterburners, rocket trucks, aerial pyrotechnics, skydivers, plus, a wall of flame - all culminating in the area's largest fireworks display. Gates for the Night Show open at 5:00 p.m. with flying commencing at twilight. Both Saturday and Sunday, May 16 and 17, will highlight full Day Shows with a large variety of military and civilian aerobatic demonstrations, plus dozens of historic and modern military static displays. Military acts will include the Canadian Snowbirds, a Marine Air Ground Task Force demonstration highlighting the U.S. Marine Corps' finest capabilities, an AV-8B Harrier demonstration, the Canadian Skyhawks sky diving team, plus a large variety of flybys and demos. The air show will also highlight ground activities for the kids, a comprehensive business expo, plus various rides and simulators. Admission and parking are free. Those wishing to purchase Preferred Seating to include bleacher seats, box seats and chalet seating can do so utilizing the air show website. For more information on the 2009 MCAS Cherry Point Air Show, and how you can play a part, check out the official air show Website at www.cherrypointairshow.com or call toll free 866-WINGS-NC.
