

Every Day and Sara Foster's Casual Cooking, have also been well-received. Foster's fourth book, Sara Foster's Southern Kitchen, will be released in April, just before the Beaufort Wine & Food Weekend, where it will be featured.

Chef-owner of Revolution, Jim Anile, will also be lending his talents to the Beaufort Wine & Food Weekend. Once executive chef at Yosemite National Park's five-star Ahwahnee Hotel, Anile also spent time cooking in Asia, London and several five-star resorts. He made the move to North Carolina in 2002 to work at Il Palio in Chapel Hill before opening Revolution in downtown Durham. In addition to Anile's mentions in Bon Appétit, Southern Living and Coastal Living, Revolution has been written up in the New York Times article "The 41 Places to go in 2011."

Also joining the ranks are the owners of Zely & Ritz—Chef Sarig Agasi and partners Richard Holcomb and Jamie DeMent. Zely & Ritz, a tapas-style restaurant in downtown Raleigh, sources much of its raw ingredients from Durham's Coon Rock Farm, co-owned by Holcomb and DeMent. The restaurant has been recognized as one of the 20 best organic restaurants in the country by Organic Style Magazine and also boasts a wine list that has won Wine Spectator's "Award of Excellence."

Among the winemakers is Gustavo Gonzalez, Associate Winemaker at Robert Mondavi Winery. Gonzalez is in charge of all the red varieties, including cabernet sauvignon, merlot and pinot noir. In addition, he oversees the winemaker for the sauvignon blanc Botrytis. The Robert Mondavi reserve cabernet has consistently received high tasting scores since its debut in 1971—a tradition maintained by Gonzalez.

Advanced sommelier Inez Ribustello of On the Square in Tarboro will be returning for a second year. Inez and her husband, Stephen, who will be a guest chef, began their careers in New York City. The couple met while working at the famed Windows on the World restaurant on the 106th and 107th floors of the North World Trade Center Tower, where Stephen was sommelier and Inez was beverage director. The Ribustellos were not at work when the towers collapsed on September 11, 2001, but lost dozens of friends and coworkers. They made the move to North Carolina and opened On the Square in 2002. Inez manages a list of more than 500 wines which have received Wine Spectator's "Best Of" award of excellence. She was named second runner up in the American Sommelier Competition's Best Sommelier in America competition in 2009. Inez and Stephen will be featured at a Winemaker Dinner at Chef's 105 during the Beaufort Wine & Food Weekend.

These guests and many more will be on hand to share their knowledge with visitors to the 7th annual Beaufort Wine & Food Weekend. Tickets to Beaufort Wine & Food Weekend events can be purchased online or by contacting the Beaufort Historical Association. For more information, visit www.beaufortwineandfood.com or call 728-5225.
