

Good Reading at Book Nook

By Dot Miller

Many area residents and visitors have discovered a new opportunity at the Bogue Banks Public Library, the Book Nook, the perfect answer for your summer reading, although by no means "fluff" reading. All sorts of books and authors are presented in the ever-changing selection of hardback books for $3 each and trade paperbacks for $1.

The Book Nook idea came to members of the Friends Board at a meeting several years ago and has become a key support of library programs. The books have been treated kindly by their owners and are carefully inspected by our library staff before being placed on the shelves.

Proceeds go to the many programs of the library, especially important during these times of across-the-board budget cuts. Drop by the library frequently to choose from this ever-changing selection of good reading.

Dates to hold: The semi-annual Used Book Sale Friday and Saturday, August 12-13, at Shepherd of the Sea Lutheran Church, and the 30th anniversary of the Bogue Banks Public Library on or about September 27. Our library serves all residents of Atlantic Beach, Emerald Isle, and Pine Knoll Shores.

Dan Law Joins the Shoreline Staff

By Jacquie Pipkin

Dan moved to Pine Knoll Shores in 2006 with his new bride and "long-time friend and adventure buddy," Teresa. A native of Pensacola, Florida, Dan served in the Navy for 35.5 years before his retirement in March 2010. After two active duty enlistments that took Dan half way around the world, he joined the Navy Civil Service in 1980 overhauling military aircraft.

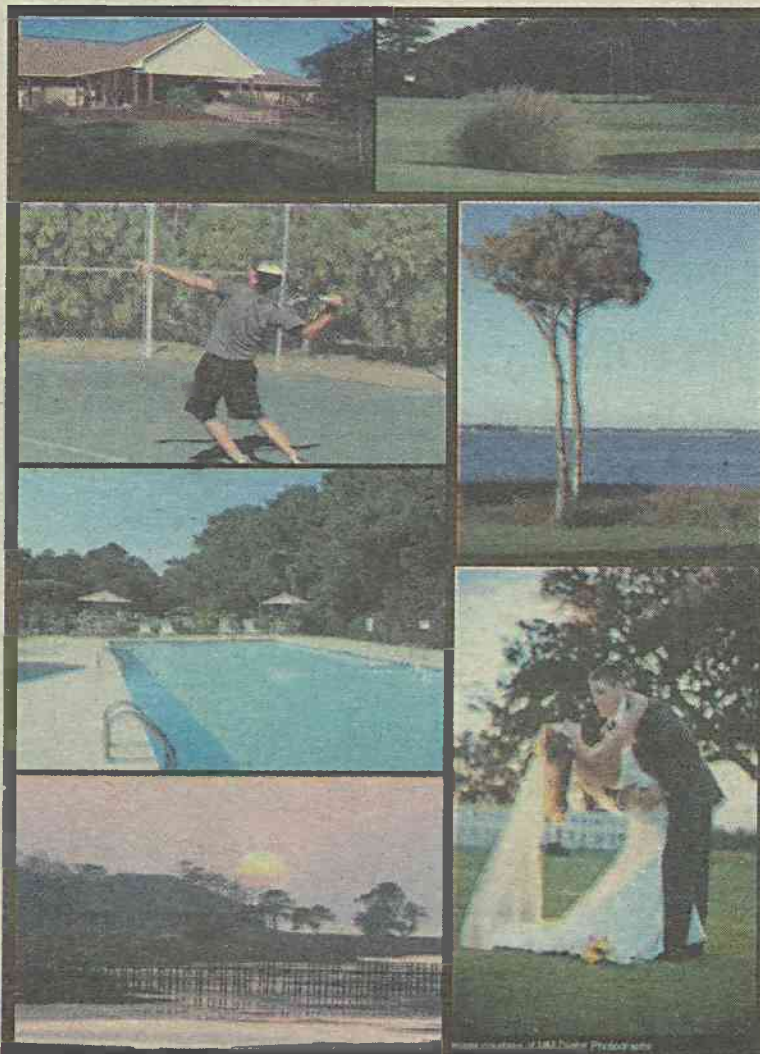

In 1994, as part of the Base Realignment and Closure Commission (BRAC), the Naval Air Rework Facility at Naval Air Station in Pensacola, transferred one of the main helicopters that Dan had been overhauling since 1981 to the Naval Air Depot at the Marine Corps Air Station in Cherry Point. Dan re-located to Atlantic Beach, where he lived for twelve years prior to moving to Pine Knoll Shores.

Dan has a son, Dan Jr. in Pensacola, a stepson, Justin, in Richmond, Virginia, three grandchildren and three grand puppies. Dan enjoys writing, fishing, sailing, carpentry/woodworking, photography, gardening and being a good neighbor. When Teresa retires from her position of Field Projects Manager for Wal-Mart, the Laws plan to move aboard a sailboat and live the sailor's lifestyle for as many years as possible, cruising the east coast of the United States and the islands of the Caribbean.

At The Shoreline, Dan's primary responsibility is the monthly Geek's Corner. However, he is always available to take pictures and generously "volunteers" for any other tasks that need doing.
