The Pink Luncheon

By Connie Brophy

Most women, in some way, have been touched by breast cancer. Either you have had your own personal journey or have traveled with your mother, sister or another woman you love as she faced this battle. In the face of the ongoing threat of breast cancer, a sisterhood of concern and vigilance has grown.

In conjunction with the annual conference of Rotary District 7730, encompassing much of eastern North Carolina, the first-ever Pink Luncheon fundraiser was held on October 25 at the Dunes Club. Supported by Rotary District 7730 Governor Andy Chused and hosted by Rhonda Chused and Rhonda Scibal, the luncheon was held in recognition of Breast Cancer Awareness Month and the need for ongoing support of those dealing

Mayors Receive National Recognition

Earlier this year, Pine Knoll Shores Mayor Ken Jones and Morehead City Mayor Jerry Jones joined with the National Safe Boating Council to designate the week before Memorial Day as National Safe Boating Week in our community. To further emphasize the importance of educating the public about boating safety, the U.S. Power Squadrons conducted extra classes, set up booths for vessel safety checks, conducted seminars and held other events, starting a year-long effort to promote safe boating in and around the waters of the Crystal Coast.

The mayors were recognized recently for their support of National Safe Boating Week by the U.S. Power Squadrons national magazine, The Ensign. On November 14, U.S. Power Squadrons District 27 Commander Robert Howd and District 27
