

A Magical Evening

Illusionist Sammy Cortino dazzled children from the Boys & Girls Club of Carteret County at his November 12 performance sponsored by the Carteret Arts Forum. Thanks to generous individual sponsors, special arrangements were made to provide free tickets to the performance for 65 students from the club. Mr. Cortino's stage show included a historic account of how magic began and has evolved through the ages, tracing magic's history from its beginnings in ancient Egypt through the mysticism of the Orient, the Industrial Revolution and ending with the future of magic.

Pine Knoll Shores residents Elaine Tempel, President of the Arts Forum, and Arts Forum Board member Kathy Tilyard organized the program. Over 250 adults and children attended the performance at Carteret Community College. This program is one of six cultural programs offered by the Arts Forum during its 2013-14 season.
